LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, June 2 1880.-For the Middle States stationary barometer, failing, followed by stationary or higher temperature, north to east winds, cloudy weather, and numerous rains.

THE WEATHER -The sultry weather of yesterday was relieved late in the evening by the wind veering from S. E. to N. W., and in a short time it attained quite a velocity. Dense mais's of clouds, which had probably nearly spent themselves in other localities, floated over the city, clouds of dust were whirled in every direction, and as much excitement was shown in houses, where windows and blinds had been left oper, in attempts to secure them, as is to be witnessed on a ship at the approach of a storm. Rain set in after dark, secompanied by some thunder and lightning, and through- to the uttermest furthing by old Satan. out the night the (consional roar of the wind and the patter of the rain could be heard. The temperature had fallen considerably by this moreing with the wind from the cortheast, and were compelled to again encase themselves in thick clothing. One year ago to day this city was visited by one of the severest hail storms taken care of. I have but little to add in reply ever knewn in this locality.

MUNICIPAL .- All the officers of the Corporation have been paid off. The teachers of the tublic religions received their salaries this morning, and as an evidence of the presperous condition of the ci y's figurers, the City Treesurer r quists all persons holding warrants against the city to present the same for payment.

MEETINGS .- The conservative renequators' uh will most at the Sun ergine house to night. The Mahone rerdjusters' executive committee will meet at the old court house to morrow night, and make arrangements for the appointment of delegates to the convention of that party, which meets in Richmond on the 7th of July.

The Alexandria Light Infantry will meet to night and decide whether or not the company will see of the invitation to attend the unveiling of the statue to the memory of the Mary land dead, at Wirchester, on next Saturday.

Miss Agnes Heandon.-Not a large but a silect and appreciative audience assembled at Sarepta Hall last night to witness the farewell entertainment given by Miss Agnes Herodon, the talented and beautiful southern actress, and her expellent dramatic company. "Saved, or a Sister's Devotion," with Miss Herndon as Constarc: Warbur:on, was spleadidly rendered, and those present testified their pleasure by frequent applause. The evening's erjoyment was core uded by the laughable farce, "To Orligo Bruson," in which Miss Herodon, as the wife of Benson, displayed her power as a inflexible widingness to obey present duty.comin actress to great advantage.

A CHASE - A woman living near the capal informed officer McCann, yesterday evening, that two canal boatmen had entered her house and robbed it. The officer getting a glimpse of the men started down the road after them, the woman following on behind, and after a hot alast for some distance, the supposed robbers were canche, when is was found that the woman making the charge on'y claimed to have lost a small piece of shirting cocton; indeed she was not certain that she had lost it at al. The men, of course, were allowed to go free, and the officer's labor on a hot day went for naught.

Excussions,-A large exercion party, un der the management of Messrs, f. D. Dayer, O. W. Hammill and F. P. Hammill, left the Farry whart for Tivoli park, at Giesboro', this diernoon. The exentsionists will return to this city at 12 o'click to night. The excursion of the Alexandria Reform

RAILROADING EXPRAORDINARY. - Mr Amos Woodward, engineer in charge of one of the through passenger trains to Danville, Va., has been in continuous service on the Virginia Midand read for thirty years, and during all that time, not a single mishap has occurred to trains under his charge, ner a single passenger been wounded or killed. He has averaged more than 40,000 miles a year, making 1 200,000 for the 30 years service. How many railroad ongineers, in the country, can boast of such a record?

REPUBLICAN MEETING. - The Young Mens' Republican Club of this city, held a meeting at the colored Old Fellows Hall, on Columbus street, last night, with Mr. I. C. O'Neal in the chair, and George M. Griffin scoretary. The report of the committee appointed to prepare a constitution for the club was received and adopted, and the meeting adjourned to meet again next Friday night, to make arrangements for a mass meeting to ratify the nominees of the Chicago convention.

TEMPERANCE .- Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather last night, a large temperance meeting was held in the Gospel Tent, leested on the corner of Dake and Payne streets Rev. Mr. Pearce presided and made an interesting address. Speeches were also made by several members of the Alexandria Reform Clab, sfier which the temperar or pledge was presented to the meeting, and several persons signed. An other meeting will be held in the Tent to morrow night.

ACCIDENT. - A colored man named George Carter, a corl trimmer at the American coal wharf, while engaged at work in the hold of a vessel yesterday afternoon, was struck in the abdomen by a large lump of coal, which fell from out of the coal broket above him, and was quite badly hurt. He was carried to his home year the cal, where medical assistance was summoned. It is thought that the it jaries the man received are of an internal character.

DEATH OF JOHN C. BOWYER -John C. Bowyer, eig., died in Staunton on Monday, in the 77th year of his age. He was a native of Rockbridge county, was educated to the profession of the law, but afterwards turned his attention to journalism and edited a democratic paper for several years in Winchester, and afterwards one in this city, called "The Age." Euty. ARLINGTON HOUSE, April 5, 1858. My Dear Son: I am just in the set of leaving home for New Mexic. My fine old regiment has been old red to that distant region, and I must hasten to see that they are properly to your letters of March 26, 27 and 29. Your letters breathe a spirit of frankoess. They have given myself and your mother great pleasure. You must be frank with the word; frankpess is the child of hones y and entrage. Say what you mean to do on every recusion, and take it for g aated you mean to do right.

It a friend asks a favor you should grant it if it is reasonble; it not, tell him plainly why you cannot. You will wrong him and you will wrong yourse'f by equiverstion of any kind. Never do a wrong thing to make a friend or to keep out; the man who requires you to do so is dearly pur chased at a sacrifice. Deal kindly but firmly with your c'assmates; you will find it the policy others what you are not. If you have any fault what you complair; there is no more dangerous experiment than that of undertaking to be one thing before a man's face and another behind

We should live, act and say nothing to the injury of any one. It is not only best as a matter of principle, but is the path to peace and honor. In regard to duty, let me, in conclusion of this hasty letter, inform you that nearly one hundred years ago there was a day of remarkable gloom and darkness, still known as the dark day, a day when the light of the sun was slowly excioquished as it by an coipse. The Legislature of Connecticut was in session, and as its members saw the unexpected and unaccountable darkness coming on, they shared in the general awe and terror. It was supposed by many that the last day-the day of judgment -had come. Some one, in the construction of the hour moved an aciournment.

Then arese an eld Paritan legislater, Davenpert Standlord, who said if the last day had come to desired he be found at his place doing his duty, and therefore moved that can'lles be brought suthat the house could preced with mind-the quietness or beavenly wisdom-and Dury, then, in the sublimest word in our lansuage. Do voor duty in all things like the old Paritan. You cannot do more; you should nover wish to do less. Never let me and your mother wear one gray hair for any lack of duty en yeur part. Mr. Cake, from the Committee on Indian Aff irs reported a bill to prevent depredations upon t'mber upon Indian reservations. Placed on the c:lender.

Mr. Kirkwood, chairman of the select committee on the removal of the Cheyennes and Poness, submitted the views of the minority of the committee upon the subject of the removal of the Poncas. O dered to be printed and laid on the table.

Mr. Perdieton submitted a resolution instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to it qu're: first, whether see ions 403 to 4128 inclusive, revised statutes, are author zed by the Constitution of the U. S; second, whether the administration of justice under the provisions of said sections and the decrees and regulations established therefor ero in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution which were intended to s care the right of person and property, and said committee may report by bill or otherwise. He explained that these sections related to the judicial powers of consuls and ministers in Eastern countries. His attention had been called to the matter by a telegraphic dispatch in all the papers saying that a minister of the U. S. (at Cairo, Egypt.) was exercising jurisdiction which seemed very extensive and extraordinary, if not entirely unwarranted. He read the sections referred to and said they gave absolutely despotie and irreversble authority to consuls over any citizens of the U. S. He did not know of any constitutional authority for these consular courts, but il' such authority exists there could be none for conferring extra constitutional jurisd'e ion upon them. Consuls cannot constitutional y be authorized to fry men without juries, opevior or punish by imprisonment or death, when judges at home cannot do so. The resolution was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Ransom, and not withstand ing Mr. Morgan's appeal for the consideration of the calendar during the morning hour, all prior orders were postponed and the liver and Hart or bill was further considered.
